Pimples, blackheads and boils—fresh yeast rids you of them

It is well known that pimples and blackheads (acne) and boils are often caused by errors of diet.

Fleischmann's Yeast is now being recommended for these embarrassing and painful skin troubles because fresh yeast corrects the errors of diet which cause them.

The surgeon of one important New York hospital states: "I have used yeast extensively and found it invaluable in curing boils." When 17 cases of pimples were treated with Fleischmann's Yeast at hospitals in New York and Philadelphia the results were remarkable. A typical case was a young man who had suffered from pimples for three years. He ate three cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast daily. In five weeks the eruption had cleared completely.

If you are troubled with pimples or boils, begin at once to correct them by eating 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast daily before or between meals. Desure's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer for Fleischmann's Yeast.

NO ONE OWNS MARYLAND FARM SINCE DRY AGENTS RAIDED IT

Special Dispatch to The Star.

BALTIMORE, February 20.—Down in the lower reaches of St. Marys county, Md., is a good farm of several hundred acres, partly stocked, which has gone a-begging for a claimant these last two weeks. Its owner, if owner he ever had, has faded into oblivion.

Sad come the tidings from the peaceful little county that there will be no crop yield on the tract this summer unless the situation takes an unexpected change in the next few weeks. As far as state and federal officials have been able to learn there is no murder mystery about this strange disappearance. The owner might more easily have evaporated, as far as clues are concerned.

500-Gallon Still.

It seems that two weeks ago prohibition agents swept down upon the little farm and seized what is believed to have been the biggest moonshine still ever set up in this section of the county. The still had a capacity of 500 gallons. There were great quantities of mash and four negroes, typically southern, were found engaged in turning out enough "caw" liquor to warm the hearts of many Baltimoreans, Washingtonians and Philadelphians.

The busy negroes had a boss, they admitted, but they did not know his name. They knew not of his whereabouts. He just came and went on pay day like a will of the wisp.

The prohibition agents were armed with a search warrant, and they approached a house nearby where they lived. Ignatius Warthen, the greatest of the three negroes, was found there. He admitted that the liquor was his property, but the farm, he belonged not to him. He didn't know who owned the farm a few steps away from his home. It was not on his mind to repeat the same story to Judge Rose in the United States court when he was fined for the illegal possession of the three gallons of "caw."

Meanwhile the negroes and the big still were taken to Baltimore in the big snowstorm of more than two weeks ago. So great was the size of the still and its parts that the agents found difficulty in locating a storage place.

Know Absolutely Nothing.

Mystified, the prohibition agents continued their search through St. Marys. They came upon an automobile, in which were riding Raymond J. Hitch and two negroes. And as they went to the rear of the automobile they found a giant copper still pot, with a capacity of more than 100 gallons.

Hitch told Commissioner Supplee that he had no knowledge of the still. Hitch explained his presence in the machine by declaring that the negroes invited him for a ride to have a look at St. Marys stables. Hitch, the bigger still. The still pot in the car was incidental. Somebody they knew not who, wanted it repaired.

Congressman Sidney Mudd acted as counsel for Hitch and the other two St. Marys county, who said he was a timber dealer, was discharged for lack of evidence. Hitch was discharged to show that he was the vanished owner of the farm.

Warthen's disclaimer that his home is not located in the section of the theory that the tract contains no moonshine. The nearest symbol of keeping company with the lone lonesome horses and stray hounds.

May Give It Back to Indians.

May give it back to the warthen to Assistant District Attorney Murray Donahoe.

"Taint my farm," echoed Warthen's brother before he left for home. "Taint our farm," chorused the four timber dealer, before being given his

"Taint our farm," echoed the four negroes, who went to jail for ten days. The prohibition agents were manufacturing the "caw" for "somebody."

"We'll have to give it back to the Indians," mused District Attorney Carman.

ALIED PROPOSALS MADE TO MOSCOW

Soviet Agents Get Trade Plans From France, England and Germany.

By the Associated Press.

BERLIN, Feb. 19.—Carl Radek and Leonid Krassin, representatives of the Russian soviet, are on the way to Moscow with proposals from France, Great Britain and Germany looking toward Russian economic reconstruction. While Radek was here presumably to discuss only economic problems, the Vossische Zeitung says his motives were chiefly political, and he was getting information for the soviet program for the Genoa conference. The Vossische Zeitung describes Radek as one of the communists living propaganda and the comments on his ability "to twist all sorts of political discussions to the advantage of the soviet."

Article 16 of the Versailles treaty provides for the absolute abrogation of the Brest-Litovsk treaties and pledges Germany to recognize the independent governments built out of the old Russian empire, the same time associating powers at the same time formally reserving the right of Russia to obtain from Germany reparations. Consequently it is argued that the intricate diplomatic and economic play centers.

Germany, on account of her lack of gold, is unable to make Russia as favorable offers as England and France, but M. Radek and his associates are inclined to believe that the German offers are better calculated to reconstruct Russia, which is especially needed German locomotives and other German manufactures. The bolshevik negotiators informed the German officials that they believed both England and France are endeavoring to outbid Germany for Russian trade, but made it clear that Russia must deal with the nation giving the best terms.

HOPEFUL OVER OUTCOME.

Agents Arriving in Riga Report Satisfactory Progress.

By the Associated Press.

RIGA, February 18.—The negotiations between the Russian soviet government and France are progressing satisfactorily, notwithstanding reports to the contrary, according to statements made today by Carl Radek and Leonid Krassin. Both of the Russian representatives who recently arrived here today to be optimistic as to the outcome of the negotiations.

Neither Krassin nor Radek, however, would venture an opinion as to how long the negotiations might continue.

Krassin said he was proceeding to Moscow primarily to confer with the soviet delegates concerning the Genoa conference. He thought the conference would be postponed not exceeding three weeks.

The Krassin-Radek party remained in Riga only a few hours, leaving tonight by special train for Moscow.

ENVER PASHA MAY FACE HIGH TREASON CHARGES

Supposed Friend of Angora Leader Held by Soviet Authorities for Turkish Nationalists.

MOSCOW, January 25.—Enver Pasha, who was Turkish minister of war during the world conflict, and who has just been arrested by the soviet authorities in the Caucasus, was believed here to have been on the best of terms with Mustafa Kemal Pasha, leader of the Turkish nationalists in Anatolia. Reports that he would be sent to Angora to be tried by the Turkish nationalist government for high treason and only another surprise charge to Enver Pasha's mission during the past year.

Enver Pasha was sentenced to death by a Turkish court-martial after the war, for plunging Turkey into the great struggle. He escaped and for a long time has been head of a mission stationed in Moscow.

It was understood here that he had obtained material help from Russia for the Turkish nationalists headed by Kemal Pasha, who would be sent to Moscow to the Caucasus and other regions nearby, where his movements have been unknown. One of the latest reports was that he was organizing bolshevik occupation in the Caucasus, and that an army was being organized there, for the purpose of marching into Anatolia.

The Russian soviet government recently cut off the food supplies, house and plenty of soviet rubles which it had generously donated to Enver Pasha's mission during the past year.

$100,000 FIRE IN AUTO PLANT.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., February 20.—Bodies of more than 400 automobile trucks were destroyed in a fire at the plant of the Continental Company in Highland Park, a suburb of this city, last night, which entailed a loss of $100,000.

Amusements

New York Symphony Tomorrow.

T. Arthur Smith, Inc. announces that the concert advertised to be given by the New York Symphony Orchestra Tuesday afternoon, at 4:30 o'clock, at the National Theater, will take place, at the same time, at the Central High School auditorium, under the auspices of the Community Center Department.

STRAND—Grace Cameron.

Grace Cameron, the well known "Dolly Dimples Girl," received enthusiastic reception at the Strand Theater yesterday, and was forced to answer several curtain calls for characterizations of prominent opera artists. Miss Cameron has a well rounded voice, in responding to a curtain call she expressed the hope of coming again to Washington.

While the "Dolly Dimples Girl" was rated as the headliner, at least two other acts lent toward stellar ranking—Bachelore, Vert and Kramer, in a musical farce, "Let's Go," which centers around a railroad scene, and M. Golden's singing, "A Spanish Oxygyn Revue." The latter was graced with clever Spanish and gypsy dancing. Al Libby, eccentric cyclist, performed sensational stunts on his "motor cycle," which offered "A Musical Serenade," with popular and classical selections on clarinet.

CAPITOL—"Monte Carlo Girls."

Tom Sullivan's newest edition of "The Monte Carlo Girls" opened last week's engagement at the Capitol Theater yesterday in "Hits and Bits of 1921," a musical revue.

PALACE—Viola Dana and "The Fourteenth Lover."

Miss Viola Dana is the particularly winsome, bright and scintillating star who attracted capacity crowds to the Palace Theater yesterday afternoon, and in spite of her diminutive stature, she was the "whole show," to use a popular expression. First she appeared in her latest film "The Fourteenth Lover," then in excerpts from past and coming productions, and finally in person to chat with the audience.

connection with the film now showing. The funniest incidents in comedies are often quite unintentional. Miss Dana said, as for instance her pudding mixing in "The Fourteenth Lover." The director told her to put some of each material on the table in the bowl, which included milk, eggs, molasses, vanilla and a lot of powder from a red can. Knowing nothing about cooking, or "anything like that," she didn't realize it was baking powder, and when the mixture began to rise rapidly she "thought it was going to explode or something."

The woe-begone, half-scared expression of the experimental cook's face, and the seeing mass in the bowl, undoubtedly made one of the most laughable pictures in the photoplay.

At the conclusion of her short address Miss Dana was presented with a bouquet of roses almost as big as herself, and the flowers blended with her coral frock to bring out a piquant beauty which is even more appealing in the glare of footlights than when seen through the camera's eye.

The film story is both interesting and amusing, for it concerns a millionaire's daughter who plays "only, meeny, miny, mo" with a rogues' gallery of admirers, and then decides upon a garden as the object of her affections. Her pursuit of this reluctant young man, who wants a wife that can cook and sew rather than a society doll, furnishes the theme. The various obstacles imposed in her way caused the spectators to agree with Miss Dana when she afterward said: "Wouldn't it be terrible if all men were as hard to get as that one!"

Stomach Upset?
Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the REAL cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away go indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without gripping, cramps or pain. Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 35c.

and the photographic work is also excellent.

Betty Compson, who created something of a sensation in "The Miracle Man," has the stellar role, that of the faithful wife, Julian Rolfe. Her work is good, especially where she assumes the part of a woman of the underworld to gain information that will help her husband from the electric chair. Some, perhaps, will believe Miss Compson's work in this picture "The Miracle Man" her big effort in "The Miracle Man" and stamps her as an actress of ability. The supporting company is adequate, the minor characters contributing much to the success of the drama.

A Christie comedy, "Hokus Pokus," featuring Bobby Vernon, makes for continuous laughter, and an enjoyable violin solo by Henri Sokolov, with pleasing numbers by the orchestra. And the news films are added attractions.

CRANDALL'S—"My Boy."

Jackie Coogan has come downtown again in his picture, "My Boy," which is shown this week at Crandall's, corner of 8th and E streets. The reputation of little Jackie and the play have grown immensely and the theater was continuously filled during the afternoon and evening.

The audiences followed the trials of the little kid with rapid interest, and in the pathetic parts paid tribute to frequently resorting to handkerchiefs. Many who had seen the picture before grasped the opportunity of enjoying it again. The picture has much of humor and pathos, and its little star rises gloriously to the demands made upon him. Larry Semon adds fun to the program in "The Sawmill," and there are other minor features.

FAMILY BARELY ESCAPES.

RICHMOND, Va., February 20.—W. W. Baker, former member of the Virginia house of delegates, and members of his family narrowly escaped with their lives early today when their home, at Hallsboro, Chesterfield county, was destroyed by fire. Mr. Baker, who was seriously ill, had to be removed from the burning structure. The loss is estimated at several thousand dollars.
